

If you want to see ChessBase
at its best, why not try:

ChessBase Magazine

For more than 20 years now, ChessBase Magazine has been one of the leading international chess journals. The bilingual magazine (English/German) appears every two months and, coming as a combined printed/DVD, it offers the best possible training material for club players and professionals alike. What are you waiting for? With ChessBase Magazine you are set to win with advantages that can't be topped!

Each issue includes a large number of annotated games as well as videos in Fritztrainer format from all the top players: Anand, Carlsen, Kramnik, Caruana, Aronian, Gelfand, Karjakin, Kamksy, Radjabov, Shirov and more!

Each issue features 11 to 15 opening reports from top-class authors, with everything you need to know about a position concisely explained.

Tactics: Bundesliga player Oliver Reeh selects a host of tactical exercises from the latest tournaments every issue - so you can see how you measure up against the clock.

Strategy: GM Dorian Rogozenco explains the basic ideas of a strategic motif in a video and provides a training database on the subject with several training tasks.

Endgames: Hamburg Grandmaster Karsten Müller is one of the most world-renowned experts on the endgame. In his articles, he analyses the most interesting endgames from recent games and demonstrates the most beautiful endings in an instructive video format.

Welcome to my introduction to

ChessBase 13

at Thursday 30th July 2015
at 11.00 am to 12.30

at Friday 31th July 2015 at 11.00 am to 12.30

Both days in the commentator room at Politiken Cup 2015

In my lecture I will introduce you to the great features of ChessBase 13, including...

- ... how to create databases and enter games or positions
- ... how to get more out of your own games by having a look at actual theory, similar positions played by top-players and similar endgames
- ... how to replay master games, analyse them, train with them
- ... how to use an engine to support or check your own analysis
- ... how to build and maintain your opening repertoire
- ... how to prepare for your next opponent
- ... how to use the ChessBase 13 cloud feature to exchange training materials, set up group coaching sessions or improve with members of your local club
